

Czech Archbishop Branded Traitor By Red Catholics

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
Prague, Czechoslovakia, June 23 (AP)—Catholic priests said today that Czechoslovakia's Communist government apparently has succeeded in clamping a wall of silence around Archbishop Josef Beran.

The archbishop is in semi-captivity now in his palace in Prague. The informants said all their contacts with him had been broken off since last weekend.

Vatican informants and informed diplomatic sources here expressed the belief Archbishop Beran might be formally arrested at any time. The Communist regime has accused him of anti-state agitation. He has resisted the Communists' campaign to bring the church under state control and to crush the influence of the Vatican in Czechoslovakia.

The Communists sponsored Catholic action society leadership defied Vatican excommunication last night and accused Beran and his followers of anti-state activity.

A similar charge was leveled against Archbishop Beran Tuesday night by Premier Antonin Zapotocky who warned that the law will take its course.

The Archbishop Beran and the Vatican have denounced the government-sponsored Catholic action on the grounds that it intends to split the church and permeate it with anti-Christian ideas.

Promoters and willful followers of the separatist group which has taken the name of a church organization, have been declared automatically excommunicated by the Vatican.

Leaders loyal to Archbishop Beran declare many of the Catholics listed by the government as supporting the rival society have been threatened and misled or were listed without their knowledge.

Boys' Staters Visit Capital; Escanaba Youth Recuprates

East Lansing, June 23 (AP)—A mass invasion of the state capital by the more than 1,000 high schoolers of the Wolverine boys' State was scheduled for today.

Plans called for the prep schools to assemble at Michigan State college at 12:30 p. m. to march on the capitol. They will visit the governor's office and house and senate chambers.

Final adjournment of the model boys' state legislature will take place in the state legislative chambers.

The only serious casualty during the more than week-long stay at the MSC campus meanwhile was reported in an "excellent" condition at the Edward W. Sparrow hospital.

George Wickman of Escanaba was recuperating from an emergency appendix operation performed Tuesday.

Wife of Red Eisler Enroute to Berlin

London, June 23 (AP)—Mrs. Brunhilda Eisler, wife of Gerhart Eisler, arrived at London airport today enroute to Berlin, where she hopes to rejoin her fugitive husband. She was deported from the U. S. yesterday.

She charged U. S. Attorney General Tom Clark with "an act of vengeance" in holding her for nearly six weeks on Ellis Island. "It looked as if they were going to hold me there as a ransom for my husband," she said.

Eisler fled the United States while on bail, pending his appeal of two convictions by American courts. The fugitive Communist was lugged off the Polish ship on which he stowed away when the ship arrived in English waters, but a British court refused to send him back to the U. S.

Quick Action Is Urged To Arm Europe

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, June 23 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson today carries to the House his sales talk for swift action on European rearmament, after an encouraging visit to the Senate.

Acheson prepared to go before the House Foreign Affairs committee following his report yesterday to the Senate Foreign Relations group on the results of the Paris foreign ministers conference.

He told the senators that the inability of the western delegates at the conference to come to any real agreement with Russia emphasizes the need for both the North Atlantic pact and the related arms program.

Backed By Vandenberg
Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, a Republican leader in foreign affairs, said afterward that "congress can't adjourn without acting on both." Democratic leader Lucas of Illinois expressed much the same opinion. So did Senator Connally (D-Tex.), chairman of the foreign relations committee.

Acheson's plea also got backing from the nation's state governors, meeting at Colorado Springs, Colo. They passed a unanimous resolution urging swift pact approval, followed by any action needed to give the treaty "full force and effect."

Only the Senate need approve the Atlantic treaty. Both House and Senate would have to okay the plan to re-arm this country's western European friends.

Acheson told the Senate committee that a delay in action on the two programs would destroy the "momentum" of American foreign policy—the policy which he declared was responsible for the lifting of the Berlin blockade by Russia, as well as any other progress the western powers have been able to make recently in the cold war.

Vandenberg agreed. "We cannot leave any twilight zone in a subject of this major importance to the world," he declared.

Parched Northeast Has No Sign Of Rain

Crop Loss In New Jersey Set At 10 Million

(By The Associated Press)
Lower temperatures and less humidity—but no signs of heavy rain—brought a measure of relief to the drought stricken northeastern states today.

Some light showers fell over areas of the parched New England states and New York state yesterday, but not enough to ease the threat of severe damage to farm crops. The long dry spell—no substantial rainfall during June—also has created serious water shortages in some New England communities and intensified the hazards of forest fires.

Farm crops already have suffered millions of dollars damage by the lack of rain. In New Jersey, Willard H. Allen, secretary of agriculture, estimated the loss at $10,000,000, with the drought curtailing production of the asparagus and strawberry crop.

The state's potato and blueberry crops, he said, are in critical shape.

No heavy rain has fallen in New Jersey for 32 days. In Garfield, a community of 28,000 population, fire pumps were pumping water from the Passaic Valley water commission into the city's dry mains. One pump broke down last night and parts of the city were without water.

Liquor Commission Slashes Prices On 40 Brands July 2

Lansing, June 23 (AP)—Price cuts in about 40 brands of liquor effective July 2 were announced today by the State Liquor Control Commission.

The cuts range from a few cents to more than a dollar. About half of the items slashed are whiskies. The rest are gins, rums, cordials and a few wines.

In the whiskies, the cuts mainly were made possible by the substitution of three year old whiskies for four, five or six year old blends, a commission spokesman said.

One blend of straight whiskies was slashed in price from $5.25 to $3.95 a fifth, the biggest cut. A rye was cut in price from $5.24 to $4.37. A Scotch was cut from $5.42 to $4.61.

The wine distillers apparently are trying to stimulate sales, the commission spokesman said. "In most cases, the cut in price is made possible through a cut in the age of the liquor."

SECOND BODY FOUND

Algonac (AP)—The body of 48-year-old Carl H. Fink of Royal Oak, whose boat overturned in the St. Clair river June 12, was found Tuesday night. Earlier authorities had recovered the body of Fink's companion, Mrs. Estella Barnes of Detroit.

Republicans Ready To Battle Truman's New Farm Program

Washington, June 23 (AP)—A group of Republicans girded today for a fight against even a "trial run" for the Truman administration's new farm program.

The battle may echo in next year's congressional campaigning in farm areas.

A House agriculture subcommittee yesterday approved 6 to 3 a new farm bill that would:

1. Permit Secretary of Agriculture Brannan to experiment on three crops in 1950 with his proposed "production payment" farm program. Brannan contends his program would mean cheaper food and assured income for farmers.

2. Kill the 1948 Aiken law, which is scheduled to set up next year a flexible 60 to 80 per cent on parity price support program for agriculture. Parity is a price level set arbitrarily some years ago as a standard considered fair to both farmers and consumers.

3. Create a new parity-of-farm income system, as proposed by Brannan, and support prices of major crops at 100 per cent of that standard. This might mean for most crops the highest price supports ever attempted by the government.

Prices of crops are now supported at 90 per cent of the old parity standard.

Justice Department Checks On Floggers

Alabama's Hooded Mobs Under Investigation

Washington, June 23 (AP)—The Justice Department teamed up with Congress today to investigate incidents of flogging in Alabama by hooded gangs.

Rep. Celler (D-NY), chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, said an attorney from the department's Civil Rights section was being assigned to help the committee in the inquiry.

Celler set off what he said would be a full-fledged investigation of the floggings by directing a civil rights subcommittee yesterday to determine the extent to which federal civil rights laws have been violated.

The chairman also disclosed the Department of Justice was working independently on the case. Celler said his group will move carefully to avoid jeopardizing the department's work.

Just who the subcommittee will call or when, was not determined. Staff members prepared to invite Clarke Stallworth, a Birmingham Post reporter, as one witness.

Stallworth was beaten in the Alabama town of Sumter, near Birmingham, while working on a story of violence by hooded gangs.

The committee expects to call witnesses later, including perhaps some flogging victims themselves.

Mail Fraud Denied By Preston Tucker In Chicago Court

Chicago, June 23 (AP)—Preston T. Tucker, his business suit matching the gray of his personal rear-engine car, pleaded innocent today to federal indictment charging mail fraud, conspiracy and SEC violations.

Six of his seven co-defendants in a 31-count indictment also pleaded innocent before Judge Philip L. Sullivan.

The indictment, returned June 10, resulted from a grand jury investigation of promotion of the Tucker automobile. Several hand-made models of the novel car were built but it never reached mass production despite an expenditure of $28,000,000.

Tucker drove to the courthouse in his gray Tucker as he did when the grand jury began its inquiry and when he was summoned to post his bond.

At today's hearing Judge Sullivan announced he would turn the Tucker case to the executive committee of the U. S. district court for reassignment to another judge for trial in the fall.

Airliner Crashes In Sea, 24 Perish

Bari, Italy, June 23 (AP)—At least 24 persons perished today when a Dutch Airlines (KLM) Constellation hurtled 16,000 feet into the sea just off this port.

The bodies of 16 men, five women and three children have been recovered. Americans, Turks, Dutch and Albanians were reported among the victims. There was no official word as to the total number aboard the four-engine craft, bound from Batavia to Amsterdam. So far as can be determined, there were no survivors.

Hundreds of bathers saw the plane plummet into the sea less than 350 yards offshore. Local authorities said they believed the number of victims might

Lansing Legislators Wind Up 1949 Session

House Democrats Predict Victory For Housing Bill

By FRANCIS M. LEMAY

Washington, June 23 (AP)—Administration Democrats confidently predicted victory as the long House debate on public housing—which started off with a fist fight—went into its second day.

House leaders claimed a margin of 30 votes for President Truman's hotly contested housing bill, one of the major domestic points of his "fair deal" legislative program.

Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) told reporters the administration is sure to win.

However, lawmakers spearheading an opposition team of Republicans and Southern Democrats insisted the issue is still in doubt. Rep. Halleck (R-Ind.) said Republicans may have a substitute ready when voting begins, probably tomorrow.

The opposition appeared split over whether to make an all-out

Congress In Annual Money Bill Log-Jam

House Leaders Blaming Holdup On Senate

Washington, June 23 (AP)—President Truman today signed an $862,563,000 appropriation bill supplying money for thousands of temporarily payless federal employees. It also makes $5,400,000 available for rebuilding or repairing the White House.

The bill, known as a deficiency measure, supplies money for agencies which already have exhausted their regular appropriations for the present fiscal year which closes with the end of this month.

Several agencies are in that fix and have been unable to pay employees. One reason is that congress voted a pay raise for government workers after making an appropriation based on the old pay scale.

A log-jam of appropriation bills for the new year has piled up in congress. House leaders blame the Senate.

Husband Convicted For Murdering Wife He Thought Untrue

Rock Island, Ill., June 23 (AP)—A 44-year-old telephone company technician today was convicted of murdering his wife whom he thought was unfaithful and tried to trap by wiring her house for sound. Joseph Matusik was sentenced to life imprisonment.

A jury of seven men and five women returned its finding and Circuit Judge A. J. Scheinman imposed sentence immediately.

The state charged Matusik intentionally shot his wife, Eva, 40, March 7, because he thought she was unfaithful. He claimed her death was an accident.

Police said they found no evidence the wife was untrue.

Three Men Quizzed About Grand Rapids Mystery Drowning

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 23 (AP)—Three men were questioned by police today in the death of Mrs. Madelyn B. Meissner, 32.

Mrs. Meissner's body, clad in a bathing suit, was found in the Grand River Tuesday and was unidentified for 24 hours.

Police said the woman had lived in a tent beside the river, north of the city.

One of the men detained for questioning, identified as George Topp, 37, also lived in a tent near the river, officers said.

Defective Glen Layne and Deputy Sheriff Jack Wiess said a person whom they did not identify reported seeing Topp return alone after going out on the river in a boat with Mrs. Meissner.

Identities of the other two men in custody were not disclosed.

Ripley, Mich., Mill Destroyed By Fire

Houghton, Mich., June 23 (AP)—Fire last night destroyed the Ripley, Mich., sawmill of the Gibbs City Lumber company.

Officials of the company estimated the loss at $30,000 and said the plant would be rebuilt.

SEEN HIM? — A 46-state police alarm is out for Sigmund Z. Engel, 73-year-old "love pirate," described by police as a "matrimonial swindler de luxe." His picture was identified by daughters of Mrs. Reseda Corrigan of Chicago, one of the victims. Police say Engel swindled the 39-year-old widow out of $5,000 on promises of marriage, and that Engel, one of 32 names used by the aged romeo, had been bilking women for more than 59 years.

Ford Union Rejects Wage Freeze Offer

Upside Down Economics, Says UAW President

Detroit, June 23 (AP)—Ford's wage freeze proposal was denounced as "counterfeit security" by the CIO United Auto Workers today.

The union's formal rejection, delivered by President Walter Reuther, also termed Ford's proposal a "flight into fantasy" and "upside down economics."

Last week Ford asked the UAW to withdraw all its economic demands, including a wage increase and $100 monthly pensions, for a period of 18 months.

Wages meanwhile would be pegged to the cost of living.

The union's official rejection came as negotiations covering 108,000 Ford production workers were stepped up.

Today was to have been an open date in negotiations but a meeting was scheduled nonetheless. Ford and the union are working against a July 15 expiration date in their present contract.

Reuther said Ford's proposal was a "pattern for continued and increasing unemployment." He said it was "unsound and unrealistic."

Ford offered to hold its present wage levels in return for the union's withdrawal of its economic demands.

The company cited a falling car market and a drop in living costs and said the "postwar buggy-ride of higher wages costs and prices" had ended.

Ford argued that higher wages might mean "fewer jobs."

(A Ford worker is paid an average of $1.65 an hour.)

Typhoon Death Toll In Japan Now 143; 206 Still Missing

Tokyo, June 23 (AP)—Rural police today set the official death toll in Tuesday's devastating typhoon in southern Japan at 143 persons.

Still missing were 206 persons, all Japanese. Some 840 others previously reported missing were found.

Still unreported are 93 passengers and crewmen of the ferry boat Aoba Maru which foundered in the inland sea.

Thirty-four bodies of the ferry victims have been recovered.

Bullet Kills Boy On Canadian Visit

Sudbury, Ont., June 23 (AP)—A Clyde, Mich., youth visiting friends near here was killed Tuesday night when a gun discharged accidentally while he held it.

The victim was 18-year-old Albert Shorland. When the gun went off, a bullet lodged in his chest. The youth had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Saindon of Estaire, 30 miles south of here.

BODY PLANT BURNS

Detroit (AP)—Fire believed to have started when a drill spark ignited magnesium destroyed the Speckell Body Co. in suburban East Detroit Wednesday with a loss of $125,000. The flames raged for two hours and the exploding magnesium sent large cinder blocks flying in the air. The firm manufactures custom magnesium bodies for trucks.

Lawmakers Decide To Sustain Vetoes Of Gov. Williams

Lansing, June 23 (AP)—Prospects of a hot legislative session diminished today when the 39 House Democrats decided to sustain all of Governor Williams' vetoes.

Two-thirds majorities are needed in both houses to override a veto. The Democrats hold more than a third of the 100 votes in the House.

Among the vetoes were two which might have led to spirited fights on the floor. They were on measures to levy a $1 a gallon tax on out-of-state wines and to permit commercial fishermen to lower deep trap nets in Lake Huron to 100 feet.

After preliminary opening sessions, both chambers recessed to permit a conference committee to meet in an effort to iron out inter-chamber differences on college appropriations.

Ninety-two representatives and 30 of the 32 senators answered the roll call.

The committee was seeking a middle ground between the Senate's insistence on $30,981,538 for the state-supported colleges and the economy-minded House's reluctance to go above $28,734,802.

The dispute was left dangling last month when the Senate walked out with the committee still meeting.

The long adjournment since then and the sessions today and tomorrow are required under the Constitution. The session must be adjourned at noon Friday unless rules are suspended and the legislative clocks stopped.

Secret Primary Stays

The conference committee met last night informally, but members made no announcement as to the tenor of the discussion. They said their agreement if any would be announced after a formal meeting today during the session.

The present conference committee is the second since the first was discharged after it could not agree.

Under legislative rules, the appropriation bill would be dead if the present committee should adjourn without reaching a compromise.

Senator Harold D. Tripp (R-Allegan), a committee member and Senate majority floor leader, said, however, he would see to it that the committee did not adjourn until it could present a set-

Steeplejack Hangs 3 Hours From Top Of 100-Foot Stack

Hamilton, O., June 23 (AP)—Henry Wilson, 45-year-old steeplejack, dangled for three hours yesterday at the top of a 100-foot smokestack. Then a fireman succeeded in unsnarling the rope that was holding his boatswain's chair.

Wilson hung for two hours before he could attract anyone's attention.

Then when firemen arrived they found the location of the smokestack would not allow them to raise a ladder directly to Wilson. They had to angle the ladder to reach the tangled part of the rope.

Fireman Robert Bickel climbed to the top and it took him over an hour to straighten the rope. During part of that time he had to hold part of the rope in his teeth.

Australian Winter Coldest Since 1935

Sydney, Australia, June 23 (AP)—Eastern Australia, its coal rationed and its heating curtailed because of a threatened mine strike, shivered today in the coldest June weather it has had since 1935.

It is mid-winter now in Australia. Five towns in the southern Alps near Canberra are snowbound after a heavy blizzard. Sixty miles to the southwest there was six feet of snow.

At Sydney, in its fourth day of curtailed heating, the temperature was down to 28 degrees.

NEW TEACHERS GET CONTRACTS

Hold Last Meeting Of 'Old' School Board

The last meeting of the Escanaba board of education with its present membership was held last night, a busy session in which contracts were approved for seven new teachers, and the resignations of two teachers were received.

Next meeting of the board, with two new members, will be held Wednesday night, July 6. The new members, recently elected, are Mrs. Dorothy Lindquist and Charles L. Folio. The retiring members are William Warming, who was not a candidate for reelection, and A. D. LaBranche.

Following a canvass of the votes last night, it was announced that Folio received 592 votes, Mrs. Lindquist 542, LaBranche 297, Paul Vardigan 234, and Dale Vincent 138.

To Meet July 6
At the annual meeting of the board July 6 a president, secretary, and treasurer will be elected for the ensuing year. Hold-over members of the board are Harold Crebo, Dr. Louis Groos, Dr. Fred Hirn, C. Gust Peterson and Charles E. Lewis.

At the meeting last night contracts for 1949-50 were approved for the following teachers:

Sally Ann Dinger, Detroit, graduate of Wayne University, who will teach in the elementary grades; Margaret Terrey, Detroit, Wayne University, primary; James S. Luckman, Chicago, Northern Michigan College of Education, Junior high English; Mary Wielech, Chicago, Depaul University, English-Spanish; Anne Hughes, New York, Lawrence College, English-French; Patricia Houle, Menomonie, Wis., Stout Institute, home economics; Patricia Graham, Bessemer, Superior State Teachers college, English-French.

The resignations of John Morris and Janet Roth were accepted. Supt. John A. Lemmer advised the board that the teaching staff is complete for the coming year with exception of teachers for one fourth and one fifth grade and a school nurse.

Improve Senior High
Other business before the board included the receipt of $55,684.16 income to the board of Education from earnings of the school board's share in the Catherine Bonifas estate for the past year. This income will be placed in a savings account for the time being and held in trust for the proposed Senior High school and other school building fund. It may be three, possibly four years, before construction will be undertaken.

Supt. Lemmer reported to the board that bids will be received for construction of tennis courts adjacent to the Senior high school building; that new west entrance steps to Senior high are being planned; and that improvements to the Senior high library will include new furniture and a new floor.

Bids were received and contracts will be awarded to three local coal dealers to supply the public schools with a total of 1,700 tons of coal. Delta Coal & Dock company's bid was $10.36 per ton, Cleveland Cliffs company $10.40 1/2 per ton, C. Reiss Coal company $10.45 1/2 per ton. All are delivered prices. The costlier coals were reported to have a higher BTU (heat value) rating. As in the past, the board will have the coals analyzed for BTU ratings. Each of the three bidders will receive a contract to supply approximately 550 tons.

Recommend Change
Following considerable discussion on a proposal by Trustee C. Gust Peterson to have an assistant board secretary-treasurer who would be a member of the staff in the superintendent's office, and who would do much of the routine work for the board, Trustee William Warming moved that the matter be tabled for further consideration. Lacking a second, his motion died.

Trustee Peterson moved that it be recommended to the incoming board that no member of the board of education receive compensation. This was supported by Trustee Groos and carried by the following vote: Yes—Trustees Crebo, Groos, Peterson, Hirn. No—Warmington.

Trustee Lewis, secretary of the board, who receives $1,400 a year for his services, and Trustee Warmington, favored continuing the present system. Warmington said there should be further consideration of the proposal before action was taken. Trustee Lewis excused himself from the meeting and the discussion continued followed by the vote. Trustee LaBranche was absent.

Supt. Lemmer reported to the board that 10 custodians of the public schools are attending a training conference at Northern Michigan College of Education, Marquette. They are John Bartel, Howard Dufour, Albert Gustafson, Melvin Carlson, Fred Erfourth, John Hirn, Frank Hirn, Edward Schroeder, Romeo LaCasse and Arthur Caron. They will return Friday noon.

1949 TAX RATE IS ANNOUNCED

$15.46 Per Thousand Will Be Levied

A tax rate of $15.46 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation has been declared for 1949 in the city of Escanaba.

The tax rate will apply to the $12,355,779 assessed valuation for this year. Last year the assessed valuation here was $11,805,355, lower by $550,424 than this year. The city budget of $607,178.87, will require $190,000 from tax revenue.

The tax rate includes $12.84 per thousand for the general city fund, $.85 for the sinking and interest fund, $1.99 for the garbage fund, and $.28 for the band fund.

Industrialist Raps Federal Spending In Detroit Speech

Detroit, (AP) — Government spending got a blast Friday from a Detroit industrialist. M. E. Coyle, executive vice-president of General Motors Corp., called the government's 42 billion dollar expense "something we can't afford in peacetime, regardless of what it is for."

Coyle, speaking at Friday night's banquet of the National Retail Dry Goods association's controllers' congress, took a swipe at federal spending for agriculture, which he called a "10 billion dollar program."

"The administration wants to spend 10 billions for public housing in the next 20 years. It wants

Naval Reservists Entertained Here

Two Navy PC boats docked in Escanaba at 5 p. m., Wednesday carrying 160 men and officers of the Naval Reserve on their annual two-week cruise.

The ships put out from the Chicago Reserve center, and came here directly from Petoskey. Foul weather, they reported, has hampered maneuvers and passage.

Escanaba softball teams played with the reservists, for entertainment, last night. Later a dance was given in the Legion club rooms. Originally a street dance was planned but was cancelled because of the weather.

"The community turned out well for the dance," George Grenholm reported this morning. He said that members of the Reservist party were pleased with Escanaba hospitality, and that Escanaba was the first city to entertain them on the cruise.

The reservists left this morning to continue their cruise. An accident insurance company group will arrive here at 10 a. m., Friday aboard the North American. They will spend an hour and a half in the city.

A Detroit and Cleveland Navigation company boat is scheduled to arrive in Escanaba July 3 at 8 a. m.

Bark River, Mich., — LeRoy Johnson, Dale Erickson, Betty McNaughton and Marilyn Good, accompanied by Pastor and Mrs. Maynard Hansen, have left to motor to Duluth where they will attend the international youth conference which opens today.

The young people represent the Bark River Salem Lutheran League. The conference closes June 26.

The Bark River representatives expect to return Monday. Rev. and Mrs. Hansen will go to Rock Island, Ill., after the conference, to visit at their parental homes.

Brazil or Brasil was the name of a legendary island in the Atlantic Ocean and historians believe its familiar existence as a geographical location led to that name for the South American country.

Hannahville Indian Confesses Stabbing

Wounded Woman May Lose Use Of Arm

Menominee, Mich., June 23 (AP)—Jake McCullough, 54, Hannahville Indian, faces trial in circuit court Aug. 8 on a charge of felonious assault as the result of a knife attack upon a 38-year old woman.

McCullough waived preliminary examination Tuesday before Justice J. C. Larsen and was committed to the county jail upon failure to post bond.

Sheriff Edward J. Reindl said McCullough had signed a statement admitting an assault upon Mrs. Ellen Mackey at her home during an argument.

The statement declared that Mrs. Mackey had asked McCullough's wife to go motoring against his wishes and that he went to the Mackey home later with a butcher knife.

During the argument, the statement said, McCullough stabbed Mrs. Mackey in the arm and as the woman tried to defend herself by grabbing the nine-inch blade he drew it through her hand, inflicting a deep gash.

As the two struggled on the ground, Mrs. Mackey's nine-year-old daughter, Mary, struck McCullough in the back with an axe. McCullough received a four-inch wound.

Mrs. Mackey was taken to a hospital, where physicians feared she may have lost the use of her arm.

Explorers To Seek Golden Library In Lost City Of Mayas

By FRANK FRAWLEY
Corona Del Mar, Calif., (AP)—Two intrepid California explorers, Dana Lamb and his attractive wife, Ginger, have left by jeep for unexplored jungle areas in southern Mexico in quest of the "Golden Library" of the Mayas.

The Lambs are covering familiar ground. In 1941 they sighted from an airplane the "lost city" of the ancient Mayas and lived not far from it for three months with one of the lost tribes, whose ancestors may have antedated the Chinese.

Lamb and his wife are starting back with 10,000 feet of color film to make movies of the people and the ruins of Mayan culture.

Legend has it that the lost city was established by or became a sanctuary for Mayan fugitives from the Spanish conquest. Those who survived the horrible brutality are known as the "Lacandon."

The leader of one of these tribes, known as chief Ken-Tin, told the lambs in 1941 that the Lacandon consider all the rest of the world "bad," and that near the tribal camp, buried deep underground are "true writings" which say that people someday will defeat themselves because they all are warlike. The letters are inscribed in gold.

There are only three pages of the once-rich Maya library known to the civilized world, Lamb said, and history records that Spanish conquistadors burned thousands upon thousands of volumes.

Louisville defeated Minneapolis 9 to 7.

Dominican Rebel Invasion Crushed

Havana, Cuba, June 23 (AP)—A Dominican government broadcast said last night a third attempt to land revolutionary invaders in the republic by plane had been crushed.

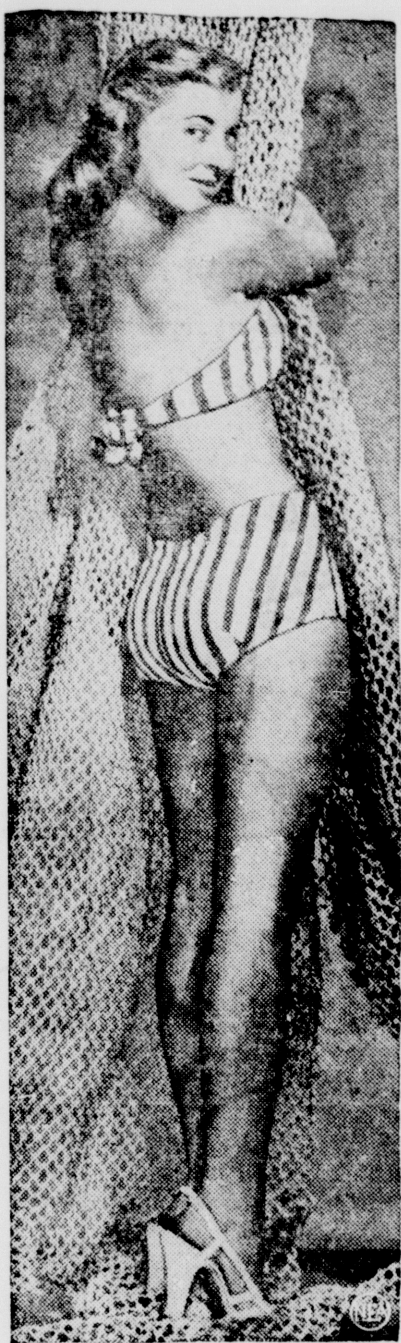

Eight of the invaders were killed and four captured, the broadcast said. Horacio Jilio Hornes, "chief of operations" for the rebels, was reported among the captives.

President Rafael Trujillo previously said the revolution had been crushed after two planeloads of invaders who landed Sunday night had been wiped out.

lement to the two houses.

The Senate defeated an attempt to pick up the House-approved bill to abolish the secret primary. The bill was left without Senate action at the May adjournment. The measure would have returned to the old system under which voters at primaries declared the party in which they intended to vote.

Use Tax Revived
The Senate taxation committee reported out a new version of the Bates law, which was inadvertently repealed by the legislature last month.

A new proposal, a substitute for a bill in committee, would take home rule cities out from under the 15 mill tax limitation and permit them to levy an additional 10 mills.

Bates needs two-thirds majorities in both houses to attach the reinstatement to a minor bill now in a Senate committee and slam it through both chambers.

Senator George N. Higgins (R-Ferndale) said he would try again to get the House to pass his proposed three per cent use tax on the sale of used cars. In an attempt to wean over the powerful road lobby, Higgins proposes now to earmark $5,000,000 of the estimated $20,000,000 for county roads.

The House has twice defeated the measure. Any move to get further consideration for the bill requires unanimous consent. Higgins' best friends said they could not see how he was going to do it.

Quick Now, Who Is Regular First Base Man For Cardinals?

By the Associated Press Sports Writer

Quick now, who is the regular first baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals?

The average baseball fan probably has to think twice before answering "Vernon (Nippy) Jones," but the 24-year-old sophomore first sacker, in his colorless, but efficient way, is doing a bang-up job for Manager Eddie Dyer.

Although he is shoved into the shadows by glittering teammates, it is doubtful if any other Redbird had done as much as Jones during the past 10 days to boost the Cards up to their present spot in the National league standings—a mere half game out of first place.

In the Cards last nine games with Brooklyn, Philadelphia and New York, Jones has wrecked enemy pitching for 17 hits in 38 times at bat. He's driven in 17 runs and boosted his season mark 41 points to a respectable .311.

Jones collected three hits last night to help the Cards defeat the Giants, 11-8. The victory moved the Redbirds to within a half game of the first place Brooklyn Dodgers, who were defeated by the Reds in Cincinnati, 4-3.

Cincinnati had to go 11 innings to defeat the Dodgers.

Dino Restelli, rookie Pittsburgh outfielder, celebrated the end of his first week in the majors by blasting two homers—his fourth and fifth—to lead the Pirates to a 12-3 triumph over Robin Roberts and the Philadelphia Phillies. Vic Lombardi went all the way to notch his first victory of the season.

The Yankees received a scare from the cellar-dwelling Browns who whipped them, 5-1, in the opener. However, the Yankees came back to outscore the Browns, 10-8, in the nightcap.

Dale Mitchell's triple with the bases loaded broke a 3-3 tie and gave the Indians a 14-inning triumph over the A's. The win moved the Tribe into fourth place past the Red Sox. Bob Lemon, who replaced starter Gene Bearden in the eighth, allowed one run in seven innings to receive credit for his seventh victory. Carl Schriebe was the loser.

Yale Sailors Are College Champions

Coulson sailed eight boats, accounting for seven first and a second.

Yale ran up 121 points to runnerup Brown's 106 and Harvard's 103. California was fourth with 86. Following in order were Kingsport Merchant Marine Academy (N. Y.) 85, Ohio Wesleyan 80, Northwestern 69, and Michigan 62.

Top-Seeded Netters Eliminated in NCAA

Austin, Tex., June 23 (AP)—Minus both its top-seeded singles and doubles entries, the National Collegiate Athletic Association Tennis tournament went into the quarterfinal rounds today.

Palestine Peace Deals Deadlocked On Arab Refugees

Lausanne, Switzerland, June 23 (AP)—The United Nations Conciliation commission for Palestine reports the threatened failure of its efforts for an Israeli-Arab peace settlement.

The commission said yesterday in its third progress report to U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie it was continuing its eight-week labors, although it has been unable to bring the parties into joint session.

The Arabs had declined to enter talks on territorial settlements until an agreement is reached on the problem of Arab refugees from Palestine. The Israelis have refused to discuss the refugees first.

The commission said it had not yet been able to obtain Israel's acceptance of the principle set in the general assembly resolution of Dec. 11, 1948, concerning repatriation of refugees who wish to return to their homes and live at peace with their neighbors.

Young Wife Found Slashed To Death In Tavern Cooler

Morrison, Ia., June 23 (AP)—The nude and mutilated body of a 22-year-old mother was found early today on the floor of a walk-in refrigerator in the tavern she and her husband operated.

Grundy county Sheriff John A. Meyer said the victim, Mrs. Harvey A. Stahlhut, 22, was slain by a maniac who cut her throat from ear to ear, cut off her breasts and "slit her body right down the center."

Sheriff Meyer said the body was found by the young woman's husband who had been out of town last evening.

The Stahlhuts had living quarters adjoining the tavern. Their year-old son was found on the bed unharmed and the day's tavern receipts had not been touched, the sheriff said.

Lenczyk Ousted by Babe in Western; Pat Devany Is Out

Oklahoma City, June 23 (AP)—A couple of Texans turned to golfing irons to settle an old score today as the Western Women's Open Golf tournament went into its quarterfinal round.

The draw placed Mrs. Babe Didrikson Zaharias, Port Arthur, against Polly Riley, the sturdy little Irish girl from Fort Worth.

The Babe was boxed around by Polly in the last year's Texas Open tournament, 10-9.

Mrs. Zaharias survived a lot of bad blows to beat National Amateur Champion Grace Lenczyk, Newington, Conn., 2-1, in the second round. Patty trounced Claire Doran, Cleveland, 7-5.

Betty Jameson was too much for young Pat Devany, Grosse Ile, Mich., 4-3. Louise Suggs won by the same score over Betty Mackinnon, Mt. Pleasant, Tex.

Marjorie Lindsay eliminated Jean Hopkins, Cleveland, 2-1, and Miss Riley turned back Dorothy Kirby, Atlanta, 2-1.

Skilled Pilot Saves 43 Passengers In Wreck at Memphis

Memphis, Tenn., June 23 (AP)—A pilot's skill and split-second judgment were credited today by the American Airlines with bringing 43 persons alive through a jolting crash landing followed by fire.

Thirty-eight of those aboard the huge two-engine Convair were injured when the airliner crashed two minutes after taking off from municipal airport here yesterday.

Spokesmen for American Airlines lauded Capt. Ed Hatch of Memphis for his skill and judgment in crash-landing the craft in a field after skidding it across a highway and into a large tree.

The craft, the Fort Worth-to-New York "City of San Antonio," nosed down three and half miles from here. When Captain Hatch brought it to a stop, company spokesmen said, a wing was smashed, an engine was ablaze, and its gasoline was loose.

Thirty-eight persons were treated at hospitals but 18 were released. None of the others was reported in critical condition.

From the passengers' came stories of terror and heroism—and praise for Hatch. The Airlines gave this explanation of Hatch's dilemma:

He noticed the engine trouble promptly and found his remaining engine running hot. He could try to crash land or make it back to the airport. He decided to land in the field. The plane narrowly missed striking high tension wires.

Dutch Reds Lose Half Their Seats In City Elections

Amsterdam, June 23 (AP)—Dutch Communists lost heavily to the Right Wing in yesterday's municipal elections throughout the Netherlands.

The Communists lost almost half of their seats in municipal councils, holding only 111 as compared with 215 seats they gained in the 1946 elections. Compared with the 1948 parliamentary elections, however, the Communists lost only one-half per cent of their popular vote.

The Right Wing Liberal party won 156 seats as against 97 in 1946. Two Right Wing Protestant parties—the anti-revolutionary and Christian Historical parties—together gained 50 seats for a total of 433 against 383 in 1946.

The middle-road Catholic Peoples party and the Labor party, which form the present coalition cabinet, maintained their dominant position.

In the newly-elected councils the Catholics will hold 666 seats as compared with 642 in 1946. Labor will have 557 against 567.

Skee Riegel Still Favorite in Trans

Colorado Springs, Colo., June 23 (AP)—The Trans-Mississippi Golf tournament entered the fourth round today with Skee Riegel, the defending champion, still the favorite.

Riegel yesterday beat a young University of Denver law student, Al Norbont, 3 and 1. Earlier he had scored an easy 7-6 second round win over Charles Chapman of Denver.

Riegel's Walker Cup teammate, Charles Coe of Ardmore, Okla., posted his second and third one-sided triumphs, defeating John C. Kelly of Sioux City, Ia., 6-5, and Dick Taylor of Phoenix, Ariz., 5-4.

The following were elected district representatives: John Vogt, Gladstone, Edward Forsman, Crystal Falls; Oscar Levine, Marquette; H. Victor Hanson, Wakefield. Ben Carlson of Iron Mountain retired as president after serving in that office for a number of years.

This was the first convention held separate from the annual meeting of the Superior Conference churches. A new constitution was adopted. Rev. C. Oscar Leonardson, Rock Island, Ill., executive director of the Lutheran Brotherhood, and Lloyd Schwieler, an attorney from Moline, were speakers at the convence.

Kell Says He'll Be Back in Two Weeks

New York, June 23 (AP)—The doctors say George Kell will be out of action three weeks, but George himself is convinced he'll be back before that.

The Detroit Tigers' classy third baseman fractured a bone in his foot in Tuesday's game in Boston. He has been ordered to keep the foot well bandaged and stay off it for a while.

"But it really doesn't hurt that much," Kell told reporters yesterday. "I'll be back in 10 days to two weeks. You watch and see."

He came here with the team from Boston, but plans to fly to Detroit for treatment.

This is the third fractured bone in two years for Kell, who currently leads the American league in batting with a .333 average. Last year he broke a wrist and his jaw and was out of action for two long periods.

Swimming Classes Are Being Planned

SWIMMING classes under the Red Cross water safety program are being planned again this summer at both the Gladstone and Escanaba beaches. Competent instructors will be available at both areas.

The art of swimming is one of the most important talents that every child should develop. Every person in normal physical condition possesses the ability to swim. All that he needs to become a proficient swimmer is instructions in the proper way to swim and some practice in developing natural swimming habits.

Most of the deaths as a result of drowning could be prevented if everyone learned to swim. It is true that occasionally a good swimmer drowns because of cramp seizures or other causes but this is the exception and even most of these deaths could be avoided by the observance of standard precautionary rules.

The swimming classes are free. There are no charges of any kind. The instructors are all experienced swimmers who have completed the American Red Cross life saving courses. The classes are open not only to children of Escanaba and Gladstone but to children throughout the county.

Even if a person fails to become a proficient swimmer as a result of these courses—the record of past years show that most of the students will do so—he will learn how to protect themselves in the event of an emergency in the water so that he can remain afloat at least long enough to be rescued.

Babich Sentenced To Life In Prison

WITHIN an hour after he was sentenced in municipal court in Milwaukee for the slaying of his wife's young sister, Milton Babich, 19 year old West Allis youth, was on his way to Waupun prison to begin serving a life sentence for his crime. He was convicted of first degree murder by a jury that obviously did not believe the young defendant's story that the shooting was accidental.

Thus climaxed the most sensational murder case in recent history.

It has been argued that the Babich murder trial in Milwaukee was surrounded by too much sensationalism, that the stories of this crime published in the newspapers created a bad effect upon 'teen agers, who avidly followed the proceedings in the Milwaukee court room.

Perhaps this is true, but it need not be. The results of this case should serve a sobering effect upon 'teen agers, if parents will utilize this opportunity to point out to their youngsters the lesson that the Babich-Birmingham tragedy teaches. It is a lesson that crime is wrong and brings fearful retribution, stacking tragedy upon tragedy. Further, it is a lesson that should encourage other 'teen agers to closer understanding with their parents for guidance.

The Milwaukee jury returned the only logical verdict that could have been rendered in this case. In doing so, the jury disregarded sympathetic pressures with which it was subjected. If ever a defendant was guilty of first degree murder, Milton Babich was guilty. And because of it, he now faces a life sentence in the Wisconsin state penitentiary. It is a tragic end to a tragic case, but the only end that makes sense and fulfills justice.

"Kiss Me, Kate," And "South Pacific"

THERE are three stage hits in New York City at the present time, and they show in theaters with a total seating capacity of about 4,300. Ten thousand people want to see these shows nightly, so somebody has to wait.

The shows are "Kiss Me, Kate," "South Pacific," and "Death of a Salesman." It is a fairly safe bet that some of our Escanabans will be swelling around on Ludington street before long, looking down their noses and imparting to the envious the news that they have managed to see one or more of these plays when in the metropolis. This is a big country, and it helps one to be Mr. Big when he can put over such a boast on the stay-at-home folks.

Tickets for these and other hits are largely distributed through brokerage offices. Seats are from $3.50 to $6 apiece. There are a few seats for less, but you would hardly ask your gal to occupy one, and anyway, they are what are called rush seats, with the accent on the 'rush.'

You understand, however, that you don't get seats for the above price, not by a long shot. You pay the broker at least 75 cents more, plus 20 per cent tax. And sometimes you pay a lot more. For instance, one nabob boasted recently that he paid $200 for two down front seats for "South Pacific." He was an upstart of course, from Hollywood, but he could have been a Texas oil millionaire.

Likewise, of course, there'd be just as much fun in seeing the current pictures at the Delft or the Michigan, but they don't offer the same opportunities to rub it into our friends and acquaintances. Socrates used to say: "How many things there are in the world that I do not want!" But we have to keep up with the Joneses somehow, don't we?

Democrats Begin Campaign Shopping

DEMOCRATIC leaders are resuming their courtship of midwestern farmers almost before the experts have finished figuring why last year's flirtation paid off so well at the polls.

The recent Des Moines conference with farmers from 16 states was pegged to a study of the Brannan plan for farm price supports and subsidies.

But the Democratic high command said candidly it was out to woo the farmers with the 1950 election in mind.

Senator McGrath of Rhode Island, the party's national chairman, cautioned that the Democrats might lose control of the U. S. House if they did not lay the election groundwork early.

This was an admission that his party's deep inroads into farm country last fall were largely unexpected, and that no easy repetition of this performance at the polls could be counted on.

In the 16 states represented at the Des Moines meeting there are 11 Senatorial seats and 145 House seats which will be at stake in 1950. The present Senate lineup there is 10 to 1 for the GOP, and the House score is 79 to 66 in the Republicans' favor. Senate totals, of course, do not include seats where terms expire after 1950.

The Democrats gained four Senate seats and 40 House berths in the 16-state area last year. At the very minimum they want to hold their House gains in 1950.

For a Republican resurgence their might well point the way to GOP control of the House. Even though there is less likelihood that Republicans can also recapture the Senate, the Democrats cannot look with comfort on the prospect of either chamber slipping into opposition hands while they hold the White House.

They remember the deadlocks between Congress and President Truman that were the bitter fruit of the divided rule that followed the GOP sweep of 1946.

It is possible Democratic leaders may be thinking beyond just keeping what they have. They may be hoping for even bigger successes in the farm states.

THE WESTERN UNION IS INQUISITIVE (Green Bay Press Gazette)

The Western Union Telegraph Company is trying to get relief from the top-heavy tax that those who use its services must pay.

No one can blame the Western Union for being curious about the reason, if any, that a man who sends his children messages concerning the illness of their mother must pay a tax of 25 per cent while the reeling crowds in a night club watching a striptease are let off lighter.

A little while ago we wrote about the 15 per cent tax that is added to everyone's ticket when he travels. This should be a period of heavy travel but recent financial statements of most of the railroads indicate they need the business pretty badly and a 15 per cent tax is a deterrent.

The head office of the Western Union naturally gets reports from all its stations throughout the country. Ordinarily a company might not care what sales tax was added by direction of the government but when the Western Union sees potential customers walking out the door after inquiring the price of a wire to a certain spot, and business with the company is poor anyway, it is a normal thing to inquire why the post office is run at a loss of 500 million a year and telegraphic messages are soaked in the pit of the stomach.

Certainly the night clubs must have an awful drag at Washington to drop the tax on their midnight business under that of necessary affairs of life like telegrams.

There appears no written reason why this differential should have been established in the first place and certainly now there is no sense in continuing it.

WHAT ABOUT "JUNIOR" AFTER A WOMAN'S NAME?

In a recent issue of her excellent column, Emily Post stated that it is incorrect for a daughter, whose name is the same as her mother's, to use "Junior" after her name "because Junior is assumed to be masculine." Mrs. Post recommends "Yr." as the abbreviation for "Younger," as proper for a girl.

I'm going to take issue with Mrs. Post, for this is a matter that comes under my subject—words—rather than her subject—etiquette.

It may be, as she states, that "Junior" was assumed to be masculine; but, as we shall see, this is no longer the case.

To begin with, "Junior" is not a title, nor is it a word of masculine gender. "Junior" is a simple Latin adjective which means "younger," and it is neither masculine nor feminine. Likewise "Senior" is an adjective meaning "elder."

Now then, let us see if custom or good taste forbids the use of "Junior" by a woman.

A very proper national organization of young women of good social position is the Young League. Young girls go to junior high school, and in their third year they are quite correctly "juniors." Then they enter senior high school, and become "seniors" and then "seniors."

From high school, many girls go to junior college. If they go to the university, they again become "juniors" and "seniors" in their third and fourth years respectively.

A woman is correctly called a junior

Jobs Scarce For Many Graduates

By MARQUIS CHILDS

New Haven, Conn.—There they go, out into the world, the long line in cap and gown. From one side of the country to the other they are stepping out of colleges and high schools as the bands play solemn music and the orators warm up their graduation-day rhetoric.

In the audience, we, their parents, feel a bursting pride. And yet at the same time we can't help but wonder what kind of a world they are going to find. It is that old familiar feeling of watching the young bird pushed out of the nest.

Foolish, of course, since many of these young men were at Guadalcanal and Salerno and Bastogne and other faraway places with strange-sounding names and nasty climates. But parents are parents and I suppose they always will be.

While the final figures are not in, the line of college graduates this June is likely to be longer than ever before. In 1948 it was 319,000, which was nearly 50 per cent greater than the prewar high of 1940.

Job Scarcity

For the first time since the war, graduates this year are likely to experience some difficulty getting jobs. That is a reflection of an economy that has slipped from the phenomenal war and postwar peaks.

Evan Clague, commissioner of labor statistics, gave some useful guidance the other day. He listed the fields in which there is likely to be an oversupply of new graduates for the next few years as engineering, law, accounting, business administration, personnel work and journalism. By next year pharmacy may be added to the list.

There will be continued shortages in teaching, nursing, dentistry, the medical-service occupations and social work. The big need in teaching is for elementary teachers. But high-school enrollments are expected to increase by more than a third in the 10-year period beginning in 1952, and that will mean a need for more high school teachers.

"While the current unemployment level is still low when compared to the record size of the civilian labor force," Clague said, "it does mean job difficulties for new workers as well as for handicapped people, older workers, and others who are less readily hired. Industry's needs for new college graduates are also affected by the fact that the wartime and postwar shortages in a number of occupations have now been filled."

Trends in these matters have a way of shifting every decade or so. In the twenties the thing to do was go with a brokerage house and sell pretty pieces of paper for a lot more than they were worth. In the 'thirties government attracted a number of bright young men and women. The war and the inflation took care of the 'forties.

More Uncertainty

It seems to me there's a lot more uncertainty today. The young seem to be less sure of what they want to do. If there's to be a pattern in the 'fifties, it is not yet apparent.

Some long-range forecasters take a gloomy view of the collegians' future. They want to know where all the graduates in the years to come are going to find the respectable job they've been led to believe would be the reward for their education.

For example, if 50,000 engineers a year are graduated and the total replacement for the country is less than 10,000 under normal circumstances, where will the 40,000 find a chance to use their hard-won skills? If American know-how can be exported under the point IV proposal, perhaps some engineers can be sent abroad. But the number would be small.

Clague takes an optimistic view. He says engineering graduates will find that their training helps them to obtain administrative or technical sales jobs.

But engineering will not be the only category in which there will be a surplus even at present employment levels. Young men and women who educate themselves in the belief that society has a place for them and then find no place are bound to be unhappy and frustrated. Young people in this class were among Hitler's early adherents in Germany.

Speculation of this kind has thus far not deterred ambitious youth. The number of graduates in 1950 is expected to be an all-time high. During the past year there were 2,400,000 students at the college level, a million more than the record prewar year. If education means something more than just a better job and a higher status, then maybe the young are taking away something that will sustain them no matter what the trials and tribulations. But that is speculation, too.

officer if she holds one of the lower grades of commissioned rank in the armed forces. Most stores for women feature clothing for "the junior miss." And a woman may be a junior partner or member of, say, a law firm. The daughter of a prominent New York socialite made her debut as "Cobina Wright, Jr.," and she was always so called in society columns.

The adjectives "Senior" and "Junior," in the case of a mother and daughter whose names are identical, are being increasingly seen in good American usage. It is a sensible and convenient way of avoiding confusion.

Mrs. Post's "Yr." for "Younger," is not used, so far as my knowledge goes. It also begs the question, for, if "Younger" is correct, "Junior" is also, since "Junior" means "younger," nothing more, nothing less.

Mrs. Post will disagree with me, I'm sure. But I shall continue to follow her advice otherwise, and shall always eat my soup by pushing the spoon away from me, instead of drawing it toward me.

Our Planned Economy

Good Evening By Clint Dunathan

OLD FASHIONED—Once upon a time there was a social custom called the family picnic.

In those days the entire family gathered at some favorite spot where they sat around in peace and quiet, enjoying the cool breezes and brushing the ants off their sandwiches. The picnic lunch was, of course, the highlight of the affair. It included a cold baked ham, potato salad, galleons of iced tea, lemonade, watermelon, and sometimes ice cream. This last item was made the night before the picnic and kept packed in the freezer, surrounded by ice and salt and lovingly tucked beneath the folds of an old rug and some burlap bags until it was exposed for the feast.

The day of the old-fashioned picnic is rapidly passing. Soon it will be but a memory, like the recollections of Grandpa's mustache cup and the hair receiver Grandma kept on her dresser to collect matrial for "switches."

THE NEW WAY—In these times the family picnic (if you can get a family together for such an event) only faintly resembles that of an earlier day.

The old-fashioned picnic basket has been replaced by the hot dog stand in the park or along the roadside. Ubiquitous soft drinks with more burps than flavor have succeeded iced tea and lemonade. Ice cream of uniform texture and distinguished only by color is laded by neat spheres into millions of cones. The baked ham from the store is sliced paper-thin and the beans are spooned from a can.

LEISURELY—Today everything seems to conspire against the family's enjoyment of an outing and picnic. There is, first of all, the necessity for hurry—perhaps because so little thought and advance preparation are made.

A half-century or less ago the picnic was the culmination of careful plans for food, made by Mother; and careful plans for transportation, made by Father. Mother saw to it that everything was in readiness the night before in her department, and Father had carefully brushed the horse, washed the surrey, and checked over the harness.

The drive to the picnic grounds was leisurely and gay. There was only the sound of the horse's feet on the hard-packed dirt, the songs of birds along the roadside, and the laughter of the children to disturb the morning quiet. At the grounds there would be two or three other families gathered before the day was over and Father might remark that if the crowds got any bigger "this place will be too small."

HURRY, HURRY!—Nowadays the usual family picnic is a catch-as-catch-can proposition. Once in the car the trip to the park is accompanied by the sound of tooting auto horns, the screech of tires on pavement, and the braying of the car radio. This discord is louder at the park, where an announcer calls bingo numbers over a public address system and if a bird sang loud enough to be heard somebody would assume it was a bird seed commercial.

Everything must be organized at a modern picnic, including the

Twenty Years Ago

Manistique — Miss Meredith Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Nelson, has been awarded a scholarship based on her outstanding record as a first-year student at Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis.

Escanaba—Mrs. Gertrude Eich Pardo arrived last week from Havana, Cuba to visit her aged mother, Mrs. Margaret Eich Goldbach, and her sister, Mrs. Nicholas Weber, 1314 Second avenue South.

Ten Years Ago

Escanaba—Mr. and Mrs. Rene Sabourin and Mrs. Peter Sabourin returned Thursday morning from Detroit where they attended the wedding of Miss Beatrice Sabourin and Anthony Maloney.

Escanaba—Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Howe, 522 South Seventh street, are the parents of a son, born Thursday morning, June 22, at St. Francis hospital.

Rapid River—Mr. and Mrs. Casimir Milkewicz, who were recently married in Escanaba, returned Sunday from a honeymoon trip in Canada.

amusements. You have to have something going on. You can't just relax and talk, for conversation has been replaced by activity that continues until the picknickers are overcome by exhaustion. Instead of gathering flowers and leaves to press between the covers of a book, children now wheedle coins from their parents to purchase pop, ice cream, hot dogs, and lingo cards.

THE EVENING—Without these modern blessings, the family on an old-fashioned picnic had time to watch the sun dip toward the west and there was leisure to gather for an evening meal before Father hitched the horse and signaled for the homeward trip.

Along the quiet road the surrey rolled, carrying a family still with enough energy left to sing the songs they all knew, familiar songs without one be-bop or a one discordant note. Father could talk and sing as he drove, because the horse knew the way without guiding. There was no rush of traffic. Trailing behind, to keep out of the dust, came the other carriages.

AND OF NOW—Take any holiday or weekend and today's highways are jammed with cars. Highway officials warn motorists to start early and avoid the rush. Today's family, returning from an outing, is under strain and tension almost every minute of the homeward trip. Tired Father drives the car, eyes glued to the road, constantly watchful. Mother has long since stepped singing because of radio competition in the household and the children quarrel over whether they should turn the car radio to gunfights and crime or the sour harmony of the Anguish Sisters.

No, the old-fashioned summertime picnic is a thing of the past. All that remains to revive memories are the ants and sand in the sandwiches—while the poor wags will always have with us

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

Washington.—An important, backstage battle has broken out between two of the nation's highest-ranking generals—Douglas MacArthur and chief of state Omar Bradley.

General Bradley wants to withdraw American forces from all the Pacific except Japan and Hawaii—even out of the Philippines. In case of war, Bradley argues that American forces caught in the Pacific outside Japan or Hawaii would be immediately sacrificed in another Bataan. Therefore, he wants all troops withdrawn to positions we can maintain.

General MacArthur, on the other hand, wants American troops strung out around the Pacific to create spheres of influence to stem the spread of Communism. MacArthur is definitely opposed to withdrawing American troops from the Philippines and South Korea.

The tone of his cables has become so strong that mild-mannered General Bradley has been forced to remind him that he, Bradley, not MacArthur, is the chief of staff.

—DAN TOBIN'S WARNING—

Dan Tobin, head of the powerful Teamsters Union, has sent a confidential letter to all Teamsters' locals, cautioning them against strikes and urging a conciliatory policy toward employers.

Tobin, intimate friend of the late President Roosevelt and a long-time power in the A. F. of L., started his letter by saying that he was fearful of today's economic situation and cautioned his locals against pushing good employers for wage increases.

Tobin commented at some length on the foolishness of the Ford strike at this time. He recognized that Walter Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers, was under compulsion from union membership, but said that Reuther would have been wiser to have ruled the situation with an iron hand and forbidden the strike.

Referring to his own union, Tobin was critical of the west coast teamsters' strike and also of the teamsters in New York City. In the latter city bakery drivers had struck for an unwarranted increase, on the assumption that people had to eat bread so there must be bread deliveries. But with the strike many weeks old, consumers get along by buying from chain stores and independent bakeries, Tobin said.

Communist agitation inside labor unions also came in for criticism from the forthright teamsters boss. He said he had received reports of active Communist leadership in one teamsters' local—which he declined to name. An investigation was being made, Tobin said, and these agitators would be fired from the union whether they signed non-Communist affidavits or not.

Tobin also warned his teamsters that one trouble in union organizations was the inability and unwillingness of rank-and-file members to understand economic laws. He pointed out that while members of his union are unskilled, they receive annual returns higher than bricklayers, plasterers and skilled mechanics because of the fact that the latter suffer seasonal layoffs.

—THOUGHTFUL PRESIDENT—

A group of Four-H club youngsters waited on the White House portico to see the president while Representatives Robert Secrest and Earl T. Wagner were inside presenting him with a petition from the Ohio Congressional delegation to name George Rogers, an SEC attorney, to the Securities and Exchange Commission.

"I'm going to be photographed with those young people in the rose garden outside," said Truman.

"Don't let us detain you, Mr. President," urged Secrest.

Just then a sudden cloudburst tattooed the windows of the president's office.

"Stick around," he told his callers. "If I take those kids out in the rain to be photographed, their fathers and mothers will be after me."

—ANTI-HIGHWAY LOBBY—

Congress is now probing the fact that the oil industry, which owes its prosperity to the gasoline burned on highways, is so shortsighted that it opposes new highways. Reason: to pay for the roads, many states are boosting gasoline taxes.

The extra taxes aren't paid by the oil companies, but by motorists.

So believe it or not, the oil lobby is actually fighting against building new roads.

Take North Carolina, for example: Gov. Kerr Scott, a hard-hitting liberal, submitted a $200,000,000 road program to the voters. To finance it, he proposed a one-cent-per-gallon increase in the state gasoline tax.

When the vote finally came, city people did vote 5-1 against new rural roads. But the farmers amassed 225,000 votes to the urban voters' 175,000.

Meanwhile, in the rest of the nation, highways are in worse general condition than at any time since the depression. Yet the oil lobby continues to oppose new roads.

But here are the statistics: since 1945, the number of automobiles on the highways has increased by 10,500,000. Of these, 2,500,000 are trucks. All told, 100,000,000 ton-miles were traveled in 1943—almost double the 1945 traffic. Yet only a paltry few million dollars have been added to the road bill.

Result has been wear-and-tear on automobiles, irritating traffic snarls, and an increase in traffic deaths. What the public doesn't realize is that safety can be built into the roads. Yet the public, while paying more for automobiles and gasoline, has let the highways run down.

Some folks complain that there are no liberties left—perhaps because everyone is taking them.

Even if beef ever gets cheaper we'll probably still have pork to beef about.

Low Cost Housing

Dear Editor:

Some of the statements made at the meeting held earlier this year to discuss the low-cost housing problem in this area need closer examination. There was talk of homes being built for $6500.00 and less, but I wonder if "Just Dreaming," the writer of the letter in Tuesday's issue, would be satisfied in such a home; which he would find are usually set in outlying districts, have no basements and are heated by fireplaces or space heaters. The homes are livable, but they are built with the idea of cutting costs, and the economies are made at the expense of adequate storage space, cheaper materials and fixtures, and most important—the satisfaction of the owner.

A local contractor is now working with a nationally known manufacturer of low-cost homes, and plans for the first two of these homes have been submitted for financing approval. These homes, without lot, will sell for approximately $7500.00. Under the FHA plan, down payment will be approximately $1000.00 with the lot included as part of the down payment, and financing will be on long term mortgages with the payments on the level of local rentals. The savings in this home will not be made at the expense of workmanship or material. They will be two and three bedroom homes set on full basements of poured concrete, and will be built complete from automatic oil furnaces and hot water heaters in the basement to medicine cabinets in the bathroom.

All that remains to be done to start construction of the first of these homes is to get prompt FHA approval. As the homes will be ready for occupancy in thirty days from start of the excavation, the principal obstacle remaining will be the financing. With the government's cooperation, and at the winter meeting the officials said this would be prompt, action will soon be started.

Yours very truly,
Bill Ding.

Discrimination

Dear Editor:

In our Congress at the present time a proposed piece of legislation, the Barden Bill, is seriously being considered by our lawmakers.

This bill is undoubtedly one of the worst and most discriminatory ever presented before this legislative body.

The bill has as its goal a 300 million dollar Federal Aid to public schools. It definitely bans any of this amount to be spent on parochial schools. It seems to disregard completely the fact that parochial schools in America save the taxpayers a half a billion dollars annually. This bill is against the principles of our Constitution and infringes upon the parental rights of the parochial school pupils.

All fair minded persons will certainly protest against such a discriminatory bill, which does not at least provide non-religious, textbooks, bus rides, and health services to our parochial school students.

As a graduate of a parochial school myself, I feel qualified to say that no parochial school in America graduates anything less than a 100 percent American boy or girl.

In conclusion let me say that in my estimation it would be better to pass NO Federal Aid bill at all than to pass a law which discriminates against 2½ million paroch

Summer Is Reality Saturday For Over Million Fishermen

By JAMES A. O. CROWE

Lansing (AP)—"The good old summertime" will really arrive Saturday for more than 1,000,000 people who fish Michigan's lakes and streams for warm water fish.

At 12:01 A. M. on that day, bluegills and black bass, the backbone of Michigan fishing, become legal game all over the state.

At the same time, the heavily used lakes south of highway M-46 will be opened to fishing for the first time since March 31.

So those who don't believe summer has arrived until it is possible to get out on a lake with a cane pole or a fancy bait casting outfit have only a few days now to wait.

Barring adverse weather on the opening weekend, fishing should be as good as it ever was in your favorite lake.

Classes Open

With the opening of the bass and bluegill seasons the final bars are down and all classes of the Daily Press Fishing Contest are open. Any fish caught by legal use of hook and line may be entered in the contest and be in line for a prize until another fish of the same species boasting greater size is entered. There are no entry fees. Blanks may be clipped from the Press or obtained at the Daily Press offices.

A mild winter brought almost no winterkills, and good spawning weather during the closed season should mean a plentiful supply of new fish for later years, conservation department experts report.

Following the policy of recent years, no plantings of warm water fish have been undertaken. The only plantings now made are to introduce a desirable species where it did not previously exist.

The experts now figure that fish laying hundreds of thousands of eggs each do more than enough to maintain themselves, no matter how hard they are fished with hook and line.

The state is shifting the emphasis to lake and stream improvements, and to providing more than 350 public fishing sites. Thus more water is made available to the public for fishing and the available water is made more productive of fish.

So far, no major change in fishing regulations has been made. The legislature did remove the six-inch size limit on all panfish, but the law does not take effect until Sept. 23. However, the conservation commission has asked the legislature to give it authority to suspend the present law until the change takes effect.

Dr. Bailey Will Attend Convention

Dr. N. J. Bailey and family are leaving Friday morning for Detroit for a vacation visit with relatives and friends. Dr. Bailey will go by plane from Detroit to Cincinnati on a business mission and will continue on from there Monday to Boston, Mass., to attend the American Optometric association national convention. President of the Society for Strabismus Research, he also will attend that society's annual meeting at Boston on Thursday and Friday of the coming week. The Bailey family will return to Escanaba on July 4.

New Treatment For Alcoholics Seen

Montreal.—Different and possibly better treatment of alcoholics may come from the discovery that they have "sludged blood." The discovery was reported by Dr. William T. Dixon of the New York Hospital and Cornell Medical College to the American Psychiatric association meeting here.

In sludging of blood, individual clumps of cell masses move at a slower than normal rate, leaving gaps between clumps which occasionally block the blood vessels. In normal blood, the red cells tend to repel each other and the blood flows smoothly along the vessels. The term "sludged blood" was coined some years ago by a University of Chicago anatomist, Dr. Knisely, who concluded that all humans with serious enough sickness to seek medical aid have sludged blood.

Alcoholics, Dr. Dixon finds from his study, show more frequent and more severe sludging of their blood than other psychiatric patients and than normal persons. Whether the sludging of blood in alcoholics is important, whether it is a pre-disposing factor or an effect of the alcoholism are questions yet to be settled, Dr. Dixon thinks the sludging may represent a type of unstable physiology. If true, this would suggest treating alcoholics with medicine as well as along psychiatric lines.

CIO Asks Congress For AT&T Inquiry

Chicago (AP)—The CIO Communication Workers of America wants Congress to investigate the American Telephone and Telegraph company's labor practices and "its relations with associated companies."

A resolution adopted at the CWA's convention also urged Congress to investigate the "power and influence of A. T. & T. on the National Labor Relations Board's general counsel, Robert Denham."

The convention also authorized the executive board to "oppose rate increases requested by phone companies wherever seemingly false, erroneous or misleading information is given."

Miss Masse Bride Of Monte Heacox

Grand Marais—Miss Parmera Masse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parmera Masse of Grand Marais, and Monte Heacox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Racine Heacox of San Francisco, exchanged marriage vows in a ceremony Monday morning at 11 o'clock at Holy Rosary rectory in Grand Marais before Father Beloit.

The attendants were Adele Mulligan and Mark Barney.

Both the bride and her bridesmaid wore suits of spring navy with white accessories and matching corsages. Mrs. Masse wore a blue ensemble for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Heacox was in pink.

Breakfast was served the bridal party and members of the immediate family at the home of the bride's parents, and a reception held during the afternoon and evening.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Racine Heacox of San Francisco, Miss Avis Johnson of Detroit, Miss Charlotte Hartline, Detroit, Miss Mary Ellen Teller of Wayne and Clifford DeRosia of Wayne.

School Age Law Will Not Affect Child's Progress

Lansing (AP)—The new school age admission law is confusing, the state department of public instruction says, but it won't affect your children's progress.

The department sought to explain changes made in the law covering the age at which youngsters may start in kindergarten. This is what it boiled down to:

1—All children reaching the age of five by next Dec. 1 may enter kindergarten at the beginning of next fall's school.

2—If the child becomes five years old before November 1 his school may claim state aid payments for him throughout the year; if he reaches five after Nov. 1 the school gets no state aid for him during that year. (This is a purely financial problem and has nothing to do with a youngster's admission to school or his education.)

3—Third class school districts (those with 10,000 or more population which have voted to become third class districts) must admit children on the day they become five years old if the parents demand it.

4—Schools may admit children younger than five years old, but since classes are crowded they aren't apt to.

A Record Opening

The opening of the bass, bluegill and sunfish seasons this year (June 23) will, in all likelihood, be the biggest sporting event of all time in Michigan in that it will attract more participants than any in the state's history.

Barring the possibility that the nastiest kind of weather should blanket the state, indications are that from three-fourths of a million to a full million persons will be wading a line over the upcoming weekend. Conditions are all ripe for such a turnout.

There have never been more fishermen—and in the last 11 years this most popular of all season openings has not fallen on a Saturday. A Saturday opening gives everyone at least one day of the weekend and in many cases both days in which to try fishing. The leap years of 1940, 1944 and 1948 caused the long gap between Saturday openings.

Last year over 800,000 resident fishermen bought licenses and up until June 1 this year, the license sale was running 7.7 per cent over the figures for 1948. Trout stamp sales show that only 200,000 of the total are trout anglers and many of that number will desert the brushy streams for a try at bass on the opening weekend. Toss in the hundreds of thousands of young folks under 17 who do not need a license, thousands of wives of adult licensed anglers and a few nonresidents and that 750,000 to a million looks like a cinch.

It Looks Good

This bass season opening should be good and in the Delta county area, even inability to get a boat (a chronic opening day complaint) should not be too discouraging. Favorite bass grounds like the Escanaba river, Ford River and the Bark River can be very successfully fished from the bank. The wader can reach many bass in the streams and even in the ooves of both the Bays de Noc a wader who has enough caution not to endanger himself can reach productive weed beds and rock ledges.

The angler who starts out at 12:01 a. m. on Saturday may be assured the first chance at some of the best trophies, but the early start doesn't insure success. Experience, fishing know-how and knowledge of the waters fished will all help.

That before sunrise fishing can be good. The pike may be on the pond then too and as most bass waters are also pike waters, the tackle smashing may start early.

Fishermen with experience all have their favorite methods, tackle and lures. For bass just about everything from a hand line to light flyrod and from worms and other live bait, through a fearful assortment of plugs and spoons to fanciful simulated flies can be effective.

A casting rod, reel and plugs do not make a caster and not every caster is a fisherman. If you are inexperienced, choose equipment similar to that of a companion who knows his way around, imitate his technique and you'll get along.

While the worm is the most used live bait, there are others. Minnows, grubs, crickets, grasshoppers, small frogs and crayfish can bring many strikes.

Live bait can be still-fished from an anchored boat, near a weed bed or rocky reef. For this type of fishing a cane pole or long bait pole and a bobber set to put the bait at the proper depth are a killing combination.

Artificial bait devotees who cast or troll in the waters of either Big or Little Bay de Noc for bass find it a triple threat game for they are also likely to latch onto some big pike or walleyes.

There are also those who unlimber their fly casting tackle, most of it especially designed for these fish, for a go at the bass and bluegills. They are the ones who contend there is nothing in outdoor sports to compare with the battle either of these fish puts up on light tackle.

Men May Enlist For Special Army Units

Enlistments for specific divisions and organizations within the Army have again been opened to veterans and non-veterans throughout Michigan and Indiana, it is announced.

All Army enlistments have been confined to Regular Army, Unassigned. Now, however, it is again possible for qualified young men between 17 and 35 to enlist directly into such famous units as the First Cavalry division and the 7th, 24th and 25th Infantry divisions. In addition, many branches of the service have reopened their ranks and it is now possible for qualified applicants to enlist in such service arms as the Corps of Engineers, Medical Corps, Quartermaster, Chemical, Ordnance, Transportation, Signal Corps and the Corps of Military Police. Enlistments are also being accepted for Airborne Divisions and for units in Japan, Korea, and other countries in the Far Eastern Command.

Interested young men who are desirous of filling any of the above-mentioned vacancies are urged to contact the Escanaba recruiting office, 1215 Ludington street.

Power Plants reported electricity service had been supplied to 67 villages thus far this year. That includes 14,000 rural homesteads. The association plans to extend service to 280 more rural communities by the end of 1949.

RUARK VISITS SONG WRITER

Rev. Fillmore's Ballads
Are World Famous

By ROBERT C. RUARK

Indianapolis, June 22—The Rev. Charles M. Fillmore is probably the oldest practicing songwriter in America today, and one of the best adjusted, since he never cares whether his songs make any money.

Mr. Fillmore, now 89, is the author of "Tell Mother I'll Be There," a lugubrious ballad which has been used to convert more heathen and force tears to the eyes of more backsliders probably than any other single song in the last 50 years.

Mr. Fillmore, now 89, is the author of "Tell Mother I'll Be There," a lugubrious ballad which has been used to convert more heathen and force tears to the eyes of more backsliders probably than any other single song in the last 50 years.

"Tell Mother" was written by Mr. Fillmore back in 1896, and, as he says, based on President McKinley's message to his dying mother. Mr. Fillmore, a slight, white-haired, active little man, received $5 for the song. It has sold millions of copies, and has been translated into Japanese, Korean, Spanish, Portuguese, Romanian, Turkish and Armenian.

Mr. Fillmore used to bill himself as preacher: author: musician: editor, lecturer. He preached, wrote, played, edited and lectured all around about his mothers. Apart from the mother song that made him famous, he has written "Home And Mother," "I'll Wear A White Flower For Mother," "Mother Love," "My Good Old Mother's Religion," and "My Mother's Photograph."

Song Written Since 1883

As he looks back over the years, Mr. Fillmore cannot decide whether he felt more strongly against the demon rum or the vicious coffin nail. He has written a treatise entitled "Tobacco Tobacco," and was editor of "The Tobacco Journal."

Some of his lectures have been entitled: "A Cause of Alarm," "A Call to Arms," "Judas Nicotinus," "Keeping Kissable," and "Kindred Vices." There has never been any compromise in Mr. Fillmore. Two of his favorite lecture topics are "Abhorring Evil" and "Loving Righteousness and Hating Iniquity."

Mr. Fillmore tells me he has been writing songs since 1883, all of a religious nature, and that he sold the average effort for $3. He cannot remember how many songs he has written. There were several hundred, but he says, "my mind is not as bright as it was 40 or 50 years ago." The most he ever received for a single song was the $300 he got for "White Flower For Mother."

Mr. Fillmore says he sold "Tell Mother I'll Be There" to his

Library Adventure

By Arnold Mulder

THE DEATH of James Truslow Adams has removed an American writer who, without being supremely great, was not without a certain importance. Adams was a popular historian, one whose books sold almost like popular novels, but he was on the whole more a popularizer of history than a scientific worker in that field.

It may be that he was all the more useful in advancing the cause of developing an interest in history because of that very fact. The writing of history has been growing into such a specialized enterprise that the layman sometimes gets the impression that the typical "scholarly" historians are writing almost exclusively for other "scholarly" historians.

The mere reader who turns to history for the love of it, for the interest he takes in the story of the human race, sometimes feels that the so-called "scientific" historian is writing in what amounts almost to a foreign language; or at least that he is taking the attitude of "the reader be damned."

Whatever may or may not be the shortcomings of James Truslow Adams as a writer of history, he cannot be accused of ignoring the reader. He made history interesting, and he always remembered that a history is first and foremost a story, that the very word "history" contains the word "story."

He was not one of those who believe that there is greater merit in digging up a fact that has no importance in itself than in weaving all available facts into a narative that will help average intelligent readers to appreciate better what has been going on in the past. Along with all this he also fully recognized the fact that history must be authentic, that a historian may not tamper with the facts. But he also felt that the true historian is under no obligation to be dull.

Another reason why James Truslow Adams had a certain significance in the field of history is that he came to the writing of history from the field of practical authorship.

The late James Ford Rhodes, whose "History of the United States" was a standard work in the early years of the present century, had been a banker before he became a historian. Today Douglas Southall Freeman, the famous author of the new-volume life of Robert E. Lee, and of the biography of Washington that is now in process of being written, is a working newspaper executive.

James Truslow Adams became a Wall Street businessman after he graduated from the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute in 1898. Starting almost from scratch he made enough money in a very few years so that he could retire and devote himself to writing history. More remarkable was the fact that he actually did retire; normally, when a man has made enough in business to devote himself to his real love he goes on trying to make still more, and then still more.

As a historian James Truslow Adams was more an interpreter of events than a searcher after new facts. He expressed the belief many times that there is no such thing as "scientific story." He regarded history as too uncertain and incapable of exact verification to be called scientific. "It seems to me," he wrote, "that the ripest fruit of knowledge is to interpret facts, to try to find out how they are related and how they influence one another. This calls for wider background and for more concentration of thought."

Author of some 20 books on a wide variety of historical subjects, he has left his mark on authorship in this field.

NEW ENGINE IS DISPLAYED

Gas Turbine - Electric Locomotive Shown

Erie, Pa.—The wraps were removed here from America's finest gas turbine-electric locomotive and it was demonstrated to a group of railroad men, engineers and scientists. Its primary power is its gas turbine engine, a powerplant already widely used in stationary installations and coming rapidly into use in speedy airplanes.

The gas turbine engine is somewhat similar to the better-known steam turbine, but it utilizes high pressure jets of gas delivered against vanes on a shaft to cause speedy revolution of the shaft. The type used on airplanes, together with the means of propulsion, is often called the turbo-prop to distinguish it from the turbo-jet used in direct jet propulsion. In the turbo-prop the gas engine drives conventional propellers geared to the shaft to which the vanes are fixed. This new gas turbine-electric locomotive is a product of the American Locomotive Company and General Electric. The turbine drives the electrical equipment that provides the operating power. The electrical system is not new except for minor details. Similar systems are in use on diesel-powered locomotives. The gas turbine, developed for this particular application, differs in certain respects from other types.

Basically all gas turbines are much alike as far as general principles go. Air is drawn through a compressor into several combustion chambers where fuel is injected and the mixture is burned. Burning of the fuel raises the temperature of the compressed air. The resulting gases are then expanded and move at great speed against the turbine buckets, or vanes, turning the shaft. Derived shaft power drives the load and the power plant compressor rotor. The new Alco-G. E. unit delivers 4,500 horsepower. The locomotive has completed many road tests since November, 1948, and now will go into freight service on the Union Pacific for additional tests.

Brazil is somewhat larger than the United States and three times the size of Argentina.

More Youths Need Business Training

By SAM DAWSON

New York, (AP)—A $5,000,000 pledge by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., to the Harvard business school points up a problem that is being faced by many business leaders:

They would like to see the balance of power between the politician and the businessman restored. In recent years political leadership has dominated, and in some lands this has taken the form of socialism.

Many of our businessmen—and apparently Rockefeller is one of them—think the balance can be restored by training a new generation for business leadership. Some of them are trying to do this now within their own companies. Others look increasingly, and with less suspicion than formerly, to the schools of business which have been flourishing in recent years across the land.

The aims of some of these schools are changing almost as fast as the times, the emphasis shifting from business techniques to public leadership.

Must Meet Challenge

The head of one of these, Dean Philip Young of the Graduate School of Business at Columbia University, points out the problem thus:

"The end of the last century marked a period of business rather er than political dominance in our national life. The first half of this century has already demonstrated that it is an era of political rather than business leadership."

Young says this has resulted in "a marked trend toward the socialization of business enterprise" and tells businessmen that "either leadership or the education for leadership must meet that kind of challenge."

Rockefeller may have the same thing in mind in making his $5,000,000 pledge, he says the Harvard school is helping "to broaden the sense of social responsibility of the leaders of business."

He stresses "that the continuation of enterprise based on individual initiative is essential" to the American system and says the Harvard business school "is making the most significant and objective contribution of which I know to the strengthening and perpetuation of this type of individual enterprise."

Numerous Methods
Of Making Beds
Survey Reveals

By ERNEST G. WARREN
Washington, (AP)—There's just no "one best way" for the every woman to make beds, the agriculture department (that's right) concludes.

"Much depends on the type of bed, the kind and amount of bedding, the skill and speed of the worker," says a mimeographed release entitled, aptly, "Faster Bed-making."

Taking note of reports that bed-making is "a tedious, time-consuming daily task of so many homemakers over the years," Marianne Muse of the Vermont Experiment Station made a special study in her state in an effort to ease the situation.

The findings:
Seven women interviewed found they could save time "and still do a good job" by making up one side of the bed completely and then making the other side.

Several suggested using one warm blanket instead of two lighter blankets, thus saving handling, steps and effort.

Four women, with no regard for manpower, believe that bed-making should be a two-person job. Following up the once-around-the-bed method, Miss Muse ran a series of tests to discover that for skillful workers this could save considerable time.

"Lower Sheet First"
On the other hand, the report said, "some women disliked it because they found difficulty in tucking in the lower sheet smoothly and securely with all the covers on the bed at one time. They preferred to put on the lower sheet first and carefully tuck the corners before adding the rest of the covers."

A majority of the 183 experienced homemakers interviewed suggested the greatest time could be saved by omitting some of the conventional steps—such as putting on counterpanes daily, or (note this), "by not making beds every day."

WEARS MEDIEVAL DRESS
Liseux, France (AP)—Henri Metz, an 80-year-old Bavarian who has lived for many years in France, passed through here recently on a pilgrimage which he says will also take him to Lourdes, Padua and Rome. According to the newspaper "Republique du Sud-Ouest," Metz, who wears the clothing of a Medieval pilgrim and carries a long staff, hopes to cover more than 5,000 miles at the rate of 22 miles a day. He says he is making the pilgrimage for world peace and to advocate release of all imprisoned bishops and priests.

Fall Rainwear
Is Feature Of Fashion Show

By Gloria Yarbrough
Los Angeles, June 23 (AP)—Outside a 90 degree sun was beating down, but California designers had their minds on fall rainwear.

Raincoats with weighted hemlines—to keep the coat down no matter how hard the wind blows—featured the display by Colle of Hollywood at the California apparel creators fall fashion show. The coat is made of shiny velon and has a braid trim around the yoke, sleeves and belt. Hat and bag match.

Plastic polka dots enlivened the Graff California raincoat, which had inside ventilation sleeves. With it was carried a ruffled umbrella.

In the lingerie department, strapless slips with built-in bra scored a hit. There's a strapless night gown, too. It's held up by elastic in the back and around the top.

Necklines, it seems, are coming back up, on both dressy and casual clothes. Turtle necks and small rolled collars will be reinstated. The plunging neckline will remain for afternoon and evening dresses but usually will have a convertible collar.

In short, necklines will either be very high or very low. Whistles, presumably, will be in reverse ratio. Skirts lengths were from a half to one inch shorter. Dressy dresses still have back interest, but elaborate bustle effects have given way to more simple lines.

Pockets Important
Pockets—big and little, buttoned, cuffed or slashed deep—were used over and over as the most prominent new note. Buttons also were used for accent.

Weskits, wool or corduroy pleated skirts, striped wool jersey blouses fit into the back-to-school picture. Suits featured jackets one to two inches shorter and slim skirts with slits front and back.

Fabrics to watch: Plaid corduroy for casual wear, brocaded taffeta for cocktail dresses, glove suede for dresses and coats; plucked cotton and rayon with satin stripes for coat dresses.

BAG THIEF BAGGED
Bangkok (AP)—In the morning, two men posed as representatives of a business and made off illegally with 1,000 gunny bags valued at $425 from Chop Seng Hong Lee. That same afternoon, the same two men tried to sell the same bags to the same Chop Seng Hong Lee.

The owner recognized his own property and called police. One of the swindlers was captured. One of the earliest examples of Roman bronze is a coin minted in 20 B. C.

Becomes Bride Of
B. J. Poupore

At a double-ring ceremony performed on Tuesday, June 21 in St. Francis de Sales Catholic church, Miss Eloise B. Chartier, daughter of Mrs. Eva Chartier, 109 South First street, became the bride of Bernard J. Poupore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rosairo Poupore of Cooks.

The vows were exchanged at 8 a. m. before the Rev. Fr. E. H. Berendsen. The altars of the church were beautifully decorated with baskets of bridal wreath, iris and other mixed flowers. Traditional nuptial music was played by Miss Geraldine Gorsche, organist, who also accompanied Mrs. Rose Patrick while she sang "Ave Maria".

Attending the young couple were Miss Lorraine Poupore, sister of the bridegroom as maid of honor, and Miss Rita McGregor, bridesmaid. Pat Chartier, brother of the bride, was ring bearer and Linda Dufour flowergirl. William and Francis Chartier, brothers of the bride, attended the bridegroom.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, George, was lovely in a gown of white satin which was fashioned with a tight fitting bodice, illusion neckline, long tapered sleeves and a full skirt which ended in a court train. Her finger-tip veil, edged with white satin, fell in folds from a braided crown of white satin and pearls. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, and she carried a shower bouquet of red roses.

The maid of honor was gowned in blue with matching gloves and veil. The bridesmaid wore yellow with matching gloves and veil. They carried muffs of red roses and daisies. The ring bearer wore a white satin suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow. The little flower girl wore a white organdy gown of satin. She carried a basket of rose petals.

Mrs. Chartier, mother of the bride, wore a blue flowered print with white accessories. Mrs. Poupore, mother of the bridegroom, wore blue flowered with white carnations.

Following the ceremony a breakfast for the immediate families was served at the home of the bride's mother. Flowers and tapers decorated the table. A dinner for 75 guests was held later at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The color scheme was carried out in blue, white and yellow in the streamers and tapers. A tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple, centered the table. A reception from 4 to 8 was held at the home of the bride's mother for 300 guests.

The couple left later on a wedding trip to an unannounced destination, the bride wearing for traveling a brown plaid suit with white accessories. She wore a corsage of roses. Upon their return they will make their home at 107 South Second street.

The bride is a graduate of Manistique High school, Class of 1947, and is employed at the Laundry.

The bridegroom attended Cooks school and is employed with the City Lumber company.

Among the out-of-town relatives at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Anton Poupore and son, Norbert and daughter, Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvio Poupore, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Poupore and son, Gerald, Mrs. Orin Eckberg, Mrs. Julia Dessart and Mrs. Zulema Poupore of Nadeau; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Poupore, Iron Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Raiche, Faithorn.

Inland Lime And Stone
Company One of Nation's Largest Lime Producers

Something of the magnitude of the Inland Lime and Stone Company, and how Manistique is directly and indirectly affected by the company's operations, were visualized by A. J. Cayia, president, in a talk before the Manistique Rotary club Monday noon.

The Inland Lime and Stone Company is a producer of crushed limestone for all purposes. Mr. Cayia explained. It supplies stone for steel, concrete, glass, paper, chemical, and lime industries and for lesser uses such as concrete aggregate and agricultural stone for liming soil.

The stone the company supplies to its steel customers accounts for about 60 percent of its production. "So you can see," says Mr. Cayia, "that we are firmly tied to the basic economy of our country."

The company operates the quarry and plant at Port Inland about eight months each year during the season of navigation as about 90 percent of the rock is shipped by water. About 500,000 tons of stone per month are produced in the operating season and the total production in 1948 was a little more than 3,700,000 tons. Since

VALUABLE TREE

The bark of the tropical papaya tree is made into rope; the juice furnishes medicine for countless ailments; the fruit is eaten, either cooked or raw, or rubbed on the face as a cosmetic; while the heart of the tree is grated and used like grated coconut.

The first railroad in America was used in 1828 to haul granite for the Bunker Hill monument.

operations began at Port Inland, more than 40,000,000 tons of stone have been produced and shipped.

Operating Since 1930

The Inland Lime and Stone Company has been operating in Manistique since 1930, and at present time employs 416 people. Being a subsidiary of an integrated company has meant a guarantee of the use of a substantial portion of the plant's production and a consequent stabilization of employment without taking the wealth created out of the community other than the small return for the capital invested. Together with their dependents, this means approximately 2,000 persons living in Manistique and the surrounding territory are directly supported by wages and salaries earned by Inland employees, while many more benefit indirectly.

Some Benefits Listed

Mr. Cayia listed some of the benefits of the company to Manistique and its employees and what its employees do for the community.

It is well known, says Mr. Cayia, that any industry must invest approximately $10,000 for every job created and that the Inland company made a substantial original investment to create this industry. A partial list of what the company and its employees contribute to the community follows:

Since incorporation the company has paid over three and one-half million dollars in taxes of all kinds or approximately $10,000 per employee.

Over eight million dollars has been paid in payrolls since 1930 to January 1, 1949. The average monthly payroll at present is over $100,000. In addition, power and supplies average $80,000 per month.

The company has purchased over $3,000,000 in government securities and tax notes. Employees have purchased over $200,000 in government bonds.

The company has donated well over $100,000 to local charities and its employees have donated approximately $10,000 during the past seven years.

The company offers its employees various types of life insurance in which the company pays part of the premium and the employee the rest. In 1941 the company made available to each employee carrying group life insurance an additional $250 funeral benefit at its own expense.

On January 1, 1946 the company inaugurated a past service pension plan which gives credit for company service prior to the effective date of the Retirement Plan and adds materially to retirement income for those of long years of service.

During the war period, 109 employees entered military service and each received $100 as a gift from the company when he was inducted. During the period of conscription prior to World War II the company paid each employee entering this service the same pay as they received from the government during their year of conscription.

Over 200 Inland employees own their own homes and about the same number own automobiles.

Labor Relations

The human element in all business is very important and the company prides itself on the fact that Inland is a good place to work. After 18 years of operation, 72 employees have been with the company over 15 years, 115 over ten years, and 200 employees over five years. In other words, over fifty percent of the employees have been with the company over five years.

The average earnings of all employees at present is $1.87 per hour with a minimum rate of $1.19 per hour.

In closing Mr. Cayia stated "I sometimes refer to the Inland Lime and Stone Company as 'my company.' In the broad sense it is 'your company' to everyone in this area it should be considered as our company" because if we prosper, everyone in Manistique prospers with us and every one should interest themselves and assist in every way possible in order that all may prosper for many, many years to come."

Charles Wins Unanimous Decision Over Walcott

Youth Is Served As Joe Tires In 15-Round Battle

Chicago, June 23 (AP)—Ezzard Charles, who wanted to be a ring champion ever since he started boxing at the age of 14, has realized his burning ambition.

Last night, after 13 years of slugging his way to the top, this lithe 27-year-old Cincinnati negro won the NBA version of the world heavyweight title vacated by Joe Louis by decisively defeating Jersey Joe Walcott in a 15-round battle.

Charles won the unanimous decision of the three officials, approval of the National Boxing association, the consent of Louis and the blessing of the newly formed International Boxing club, promoters of the bout, which has an exclusive three-year contract with Charles.

Crowd of 25,392

But now Charles has to convince the New York athletic commission, which is on record as favoring a tournament among contenders, and Massachusetts, which does not belong to the NBA. England, too, will have a champion of its own Sept. 6 when the British board of boxing control recognizes the winner of the Lee Savold-Bruce Woodcock bout for the crown.

The contest was fought in Comiskey Park, home of the Chicago White Sox, where 12 years ago to the night Louis won the championship by knocking out Jimmy Braddock.

The crowd of 25,392, which paid $246,546, was not disappointing to Arthur Wirtz, James D. Norris and Louis, who formed the IBC.

However, it was in sharp contrast to the 45,500 fans who paid $715,470 to see the Brown Bomber get off the floor in the first round and flatten Braddock in the eighth.

Ezzard Is Cautious
Charles' victory over the 35-year-old Camden, N. J., family man was decisive. Walcott stated everything on a knockout blow in the first two rounds. But the faltering veteran, who one year ago was beaten into submission by Louis, had lost much of his speed and ring cunning as the result of a year's absence from the ring.

Charles fought a cautious battle. He had his ageing foe on the way to a knockout in three different rounds, but Jersey Joe possessed the ring generalship to escape a knockout. He backpedaled and failed to fight in the closing rounds. Between the 12th and 13th, Joseph Triner, chairman of the Illinois state athletic commission, ordered referee Davey Miller to tell Walcott's handlers to make him fight.

Walcott apparently fought only to remain on his feet until the finish.

Charles at 181 3-4 gave away 13 3-6 pounds to Walcott who scaled 195 1-2.

The two judges were in complete accord with referee Miller in scoring the fight. Judge Frank "Spike" McAdams voted 78-72 for Charles, and so did Judge Harold Marovitz. Referee Miller's card gave 77 points to 73 for Charles.

The announcement of the unanimous verdict knocked Jake Mintz, one of Charles' four managers, into a complete faint. He collapsed in a neutral corner when Charles was proclaimed the new champion. He quickly recovered, however, and left the ring under his own power after a stretcher had been hustled in to carry him out.

After Walcott outmaneuvered and outfought Charles in the first two rounds, the advantage began to swing to Charles with the exception of the sixth round which Referee Miller gave to Walcott because of two left hooks which Charles landed low.

Charles began to hammer his pattern of victory in the third and fourth rounds with sharp lefts to the head and rights to the body. Walcott's best weapon, a left hook, landed frequently but lacked steam.

The margin of Charles' victory became convincing in the seventh round when he banged Jersey Joe staggering into the ropes under right hand blasting to the chin. At the start of the seventh Charles slipped and fell when he missed a swinging blow while retreating from Walcott's left. Charles sprawled in a neutral corner and looked as if doubting that he was on the floor. Referee Miller ordered him up indicating he was satisfied he was not knocked down. No count was started. When he regained his feet he piled into Walcott and had him in distress.

Charles' best round was the tenth. He caught Walcott with a solid right to the chin and Jersey Joe was in distress. His knees buckled as another right swished over his head. But the cagey veteran forced Charles back into midring and the bell sounded before Charles could do any more damage.

JUNIOR DIAMOND DATA
Escanaba junior diamond scores: Hamelin's 18, Sandy's 5; Cliff's 17, Kiwanis Braves 3; Escanaba township 7, Kiwanis Reds 6; Kiwanis Indian-Tiger game postponed. All today's games were postponed because of wet weather and will be played at a date to be announced later. In an outside junior baseball tilt, Carney defeated Nadeau, 4-1.

Title Fight Sidelights

Camden, N. J., June 23 (AP)—Mrs. Arnold Cream says she hopes that her husband is through with the fight game.

Asked whether she thought her husband, Jersey Joe Walcott, would try again, she replied "I hope not."

Then she got busy shooting all the little Creams to bed.

Joe's children—six of them—had been crowded around a television set watching their dad lose a 15-round decision to Ezzard Charles.

Chicago, June 23 (AP)—With a balance of $97,955 to cover promotional expenses, the new International Boxing Club probably came away with a slight profit from last night's Ezzard Charles-Jersey Joe Walcott fight.

The gross gate was $246,546 plus about $35,000 for radio and television rights. After deduction of taxes, each main go fighter

London, June 23 (AP)—Jack Kramer, who is well qualified to pass an opinion, says Ted Schroeder will win Wimbledon's singles title because he plays "advanced tennis."

The professional ace, who has returned to the scene of his notable amateur triumphs in doubles and singles of two years ago, explains "a d-v-anced tennis" this way:

"It is quick cutting off of rallies by rushing to the net for kills or angled volleys."

Very few top amateurs play that aggressive type of game, being too lazy, slow or inadequate, according to Jack.

All favorites won yesterday, including Schroeder and Gertrude Moran, Pancho Gonzales and Frankie Parker, the doubles also ran true to form.

"It is quick cutting off of rallies by rushing to the net for kills or angled volleys."

Very few top amateurs play that aggressive type of game, being too lazy, slow or inadequate, according to Jack.

All favorites won yesterday, including Schroeder and Gertrude Moran, Pancho Gonzales and Frankie Parker, the doubles also ran true to form.

London, June 23 (AP)—Jack Kramer, who is well qualified to pass an opinion, says Ted Schroeder will win Wimbledon's singles title because he plays "advanced tennis."

The professional ace, who has returned to the scene of his notable amateur triumphs in doubles and singles of two years ago, explains "a d-v-anced tennis" this way:

"It is quick cutting off of rallies by rushing to the net for kills or angled volleys."

Very few top amateurs play that aggressive type of game, being too lazy, slow or inadequate, according to Jack.

Tigers To Lead With Their Ace (Trucks) In New York Tonight

New York, June 23 (AP)—Back in second place in the American league, the Detroit Tigers came to Yankee stadium today for a five-game series that may play a big part in the pennant chase.

The Bengals were fresh from a 13 to 4 rout of Boston's Red Sox as they prepared to take on the league leaders tonight.

Victory in beamdown put them back in the runnerup spot, four games behind the Yankees and a nail a contest ahead of Philadelphia, losers last night to Cleveland.

Anxious to protect the narrow second place edge and cut into the New York lead, Manager Red Rolfe will lead with ace Virgil Trucks in tonight's battle.

Trucks, who has won 10 games and lost three, will be up against the twirling of Tommy Byrne, a very effective pitcher against the Tigers. Byrne has won four and lost the same number.

Yesterday's victor over the Red Sox went into the win column of southpaw Hal Newhouse, who pitched in the unfamiliar role of relief hurler.

He took over in the fifth, following Lou Kretlow, who retired after pitching 13 straight bad balls in the first, and Dizzy Trout, who had to leave because of stomach cramps.

French Drivers Put Be-Bop In Motoring

By HAL BOYLE

New York. (P)—To understand a Frenchman all you have to do is to take a ride with him in the motor car.

After five miles you will know the spirit of France better than if you had read a hundred histories. You will never sell the French short, or believe they are through as a nation.

For the Frenchman hasn't let the machine age take romance out of his life. His motor car isn't just an instrument to get him somewhere efficiently. It's a four-wheeled adventure—a vehicle that lets him play highway chess at 60 miles an hour.

I learned all I want to learn about the dauntless character of the French the other day in a ride from Caen to Paris. My fellow passengers were two ex-jeepmen from the war days—George Hicks of the National Broadcasting company and Jack Thompson, the Chicago Tribune's bearded military expert.

Our voiture was a new tiny model Renault. In a Detroit factory it might be stepped on as an oversize cockroach. But these little cars, which sell for $800 to $900 and get 50 miles to a gallon of gas, are popular in France.

We three shoehorned in with the driver but had some trouble closing the door. It kept rebounding from Jack's beard. Finally he managed to twist his head. Someone outside quickly slammed the door, and we were off.

There has been no ride like it since Paul Revere rode to spread the alarm.

Paint Grazed Off
It turned out our driver wasn't just a chauffeur. He was Barney Oldfield and Sir Malcolm Campbell. He was D'Artagnan carrying a message for the queen. He was Roland, blowing his horn at Roncevaux. And when huge trucks bore down on us he was "papa" Joffe, the rock of the Marne.

Down the road our little car sped at 100 kilometers an hour like a maddened waterbug. Our driver drove like a Frenchman making love or painting a picture—with zig, passion, artistic frenzy.

We grazed the handlebars of bicycles, and they peeled off to the right. We skinned the paint off motor cars coming at us, and they sheered off to the left.

"Anybody got a can opener—let's bail out," someone screamed. Then we got caught in a series of traffic jams. Elsewhere in the world where there is a traffic jam, the vehicles come to a tangled halt, unable to move.

Not on the road to Paris. The bigger the jam the faster it moves. Everybody gears up and hundreds of cars going in opposite directions thread through each other in shifting, weaving honking masses at 60 miles an hour.

"Stop! Halt! Slow down!" we yelled. The driver turned, grinned, circled a truck and picked up speed. He wanted the Americans to have a good time.

Beard Turns Blue
After the third traffic jam I found myself mumbling a codicil to my will. Hicks was murmuring.

5 doctors prove this plan breaks the laxative habit

If you take laxatives regularly—here's how you can stop!
Because 5 New York doctors now have proved you may break the laxative habit. And establish your natural powers of regularity. Eighty-three per cent of the cases tested did it. So can you.

Stop taking whatever you now take. Instead: Every night for one week take 2 Carter's Pills. Second week—one each night. Third week—one every other night. Then—nothing!

Every day: drink eight glasses of water; set a definite time for regularity.
Five New York doctors proved this plan can break the laxative habit.

How can a laxative break the laxative habit? Because Carter's Pills "unblock" the lower digestive tract and from then on let it make use of its own natural powers.

Further—Carter's Pills contain no habit-forming drugs.
Break the laxative habit... with Carter's Pills... and be regular naturally.

When worry, overeating, overwork make you irregular temporarily—take Carter's Pills temporarily. And never get the laxative habit. Get Carter's Pills at any drugstore for 35¢ today. You'll be grateful the rest of your life.

ing what I took to be a prayer. Thompson's beard was turning a silent blue.

By some miracle we reached Versailles, on the outskirts of Paris. As suddenly as it had erupted in frenzy, traffic slowed down to a gentle, 50-mile-an-hour crawl.

It was then we discovered our driver was boiling mad. By gesture and phrase he let us know why. It seemed a truck had swerved into his path without honking a horn. And he was angry because he hadn't crashed headon into the truck to punish it.

"A Frenchman would rather get into an accident if justice is on his side than avoid an accident and feel he had not insisted on his rights," he said with dignity.

That is all anyone needs to know about the French spirit. He'll hold on to it—even if it lands him in a ditch.
